

Dear Chairman Powell:

I implore you to retain current ownership rules. The airwaves belong to the public not the owners of media outlets. Rules should remain in place to preserve public interest rather than private. A vote for media consolidation does not, in my opinion, serve the public interest.

Thank you!